Here is a Quick Guide to accessing the Research Professional News site and reading our editorially independent news. The service offers comprehensive coverage of the global funding landscape and is specifically focused on policy and funder news.

To get started go to: <https://www.researchprofessionalnews.com/>

Signing In

On the homepage, you will see locked and unlocked articles. To sign in, click on the button in the top right-hand corner of the page:

The screenshot shows the Research Professional News homepage. At the top, the logo is followed by the text "Published by Clarivate". Below this is a navigation bar with links for UK, Europe, USA, Australia & NZ, Africa, World, Opinion, Funding Insight, and Highlighted Funding Opportunities. On the right of the navigation bar are links for "About Us", a search icon, and a red "Sign in" button, which is highlighted by a blue arrow. The main content area features several article teasers. The first article, "Council's move to shore up EU funders' autonomy welcomed", is highlighted with a blue arrow. Other teasers include "Funders 'should support shared AI tools for translational research'", "Warm words alone will not sustain higher education's diversity", "Sector leaders on forging new partnerships in the new year", "Concern over plans for split and funding shift in Widening group", "UKRI to get advice on speeding up grant reviews with AI", "French academic retirement time bomb is ticking, report warns", "My winning proposal: Develop the person, not the project", and "From the archive: Too much information?". Each article includes a small icon, a date, and a brief description.

Locked articles will only be accessible once you have signed in. Depending on the product subscriptions of your institution, you can either authenticate with your Pivot-RP log in details, your Research Professional log in details or in the case of non-academic institutions, you can log in directly to Research Professional News:
